

Touring College Dance Band Plays For Five High Schools

College Dance Band, seated from left to right: Bob Collins, Frank Romano, Frank Alb., Dan...

Lonnie Barker, not shown, Bernie Feller standing, Roger Koush, Jim Caudill, Wilburn Moore. Front row: Trombones Don Adams, Max Crawford, Terry Aukerman, Jean Mullendore, David Hilton, Russ Spaulding.

visited By Class
On Two-Day Tour
By Robert Collier & Robert Bach
History was made for MSC last Monday and Tuesday when the Morehead State College Dance Band went on tour. Originally student director, Jim has been playing trumpet for almost 13 years. He is a senior with an area of concentration in music. Many upperclassmen will remember his band made up of musicians from the Ashland Union Local which played the Sweetheart's Ball in 1952. Since then, he was on the

visited By Class
On Two-Day Tour
By Robert Collier & Robert Bach
History was made for MSC last Monday and Tuesday when the Morehead State College Dance Band went on tour. Originally student director, Jim has been playing trumpet for almost 13 years. He is a senior with an area of concentration in music. Many upperclassmen will remember his band made up of musicians from the Ashland Union Local which played the Sweetheart's Ball in 1952. Since then, he was on the started as a class, it has developed and grown into the polished outfit which thrilled so many of you at the Chappel Program on Jan. 21. The Band has 15 students and is directed by Mr. Jim Andy Caudill, and faculty adviser R. Russell Aukerman.

Last week's tour was of two

HORACE HEIST sound, winning five bands last year for playing in Heist's band for about six weeks.

Last summer he played week ends at Dreamland in Kenova, W. Va. with Ed Lancaster's band.

Jim has also played with several other bands, including Brownie Benson, J. J. Rorie, Joe Rick and Jack Hutton.

Terry Aukerman is a member of the band who will not be in the band for the second semester, as he has been playing trombone for years, but played baritone last semester in the college band. He days duration. Now Richmond, O. and Lloyd Memorial at Erlanger were played the first day. The band stayed at private homes in and around Erlanger. Monday night, and Tuesday they played at Belvedere, and Campbell County High Schools in that order.

sody," "I May Be Wrong," "Autumn Serenade," "Young Man With the Horn," "Sentimental Journal," "Steppin Out With My Baby," "Temptation," and "Dark-Low, Struttin' Ball." The one

sody," "I May Be Wrong," "Autumn Serenade," "Young Man With the Horn," "Sentimental Journal," "Steppin Out With My Baby," "Temptation," and "Dark-Low, Struttin' Ball." The one

"I May Be Wrong," "Sentimental Journey," "Steppin Out With My Baby," "The Darktown Strutting Ball" and the "Kiki O'Clock Jump," and the MSC "Fight Song," were used for encores.

The other trumpet is played by Russ Spaulding, a freshman from Covington. He graduated from Dixie Heights High School and has played trumpet for three months.

Also from Bound Brook is Tony Romano. Tony plays clarinet in the college band but saxophone in the dance band. He plays with local bands during the summer months.

Strunners' ball, and the "Finnin Song," were arranged by Jim Fannin. "In the last 10 years, he's got experience playing in high school combos and Dixie-

Players Strictly Stratosphere

One day he received a crazy mixed-up invitation to an equally crazy mixed-up dance. The invitation stated that only Morehead Players and their guests would be allowed to enter.

into an outer space maze in Thompson Hall basement. An arch of weird design was built across the entrance. Flanking this arch were smudge pots that provided a smoky blue haze. It took into an outer space maze in Thompson Hall basement. An arch of weird design was built across the entrance. Flanking this arch were smudge pots that provided a smoky blue haze. It took

A few minutes to get used to the hazy atmosphere of the room, but after I regained my bearings, I discovered very unique decorations. Mobiles were scattered generously throughout the room. These were made of bright color-

After watching stratospheric creatures for about an hour, I sought relief from unearthly beings at the refreshment table. Instead of finding earth again in the form of familiar refreshments, I was served green moon-mist plays baritone in the college band. He has played piano for four years, starting dance band last year with the college combs. He is presently playing for B. Tussy in Ashland.

Featured vocalist was Bern

Even the cake was a weird shade of blue. Lemons with marachino cherry centers floated around the punch. These were representations of our neighbor, Saturn.

I was curious to know the persons responsible for this extraordinary affair, so I asked a policeman in Martinsburg who was the fusing of the ideas of Billie Jean Thompson, Bernard Kautz and Charles Baber. Don middle. His legs were veined with silver colored paper. He came charging through the door and almost knocked down an unsuspecting Venusian. I saw the Phantom of Uranus escorting the Gilkison was responsible for the unearthly but appetizing refreshments. Roses for the intermission entertainment were shared by Dale Snedeker and Marilyn "Pugs" Parker.

also from Beniare, was a manager and managed the cording instruments.

Mabel Cornett Receives Diptichone Certificate

Moon through the maze of assorted stars and sun spots. Miss Venus entered dressed in blue jeans and gold colored clothes hanger ears. Her hair and eyebrows were tinted with the latest

About 10 o'clock, my head still whirling from the effects of the green, moon moist punch, I departed from the madness of outer space. In my little rocket ship I returned to the reality of earth in green dye. Fashion took a bow to Madame Pluto. She set the fashion pace with a brief gold colored skirt over blue tights (pegged blue-jeans). Silver and went home to bed. (I'm dying from never entering another nightmarish such as that! (I'm dying to be invited to another one real soon.)

Mabel Cornett, senior commerce major from Hindman, Ky., was recently granted the Dictaphone Certificate of Proficiency by the Dictaphone Corporation, Inc., of New York City.

